

Alice Paul Institute Names Debra Rosen to the Board of Directors

Press Releases

04.24.2024

Partner Debra S. Rosen has been appointed to the Board of Directors of the Alice Paul Institute (“API”). She will serve a three-year term. Debra has been a supporter of API for many years and is a former recipient of the Alice Paul Equality Award, which honors individuals who capture the spirit of Alice Paul and continue Alice’s mission of advancing women’s equality. Debra is joining API as the Institute celebrates its 40th year of advocacy and education in furtherance of its commitment to equality and gender justice.

API furthers the legacy of Alice Paul and her life’s work for gender equality, and also takes a leadership role in bringing recognition to organizations and historic sites that honor women. The Institute provides leadership development programs that use the rich history and potential of women leaders to inspire young people to make a difference in their schools and communities.

Debra concentrates her practice in the area of complex environmental and toxic tort litigation and environmental due diligence and compliance, with an emphasis upon the defense of groundwater contamination cases involving claims for both property damage and serious personal injury.

A member of Archer’s Board of Directors, Debra serves as Co-Chair of Archer’s Personnel Committee and is a member of the firm’s Diversity Committee. She is a founding member and Co-Chair for Archer’s Women Lawyers’ Network. Debra is also Immediate Past President and a Board Member of the Garden State Council, Boy Scouts of America, and a former Board member of the Philadelphia Diversity Law Group.

Debra is a graduate of Rutgers School of Law - Camden and Dickinson College.
