

Peter Frattarelli to Speak at NJSBA 2017 Mid-Year Meeting in Madrid, Spain

Press Releases

08.07.2017

Archer attorney, Peter L. Frattarelli, will chair and moderate the seminar "Labor and Employment – A Paella of Issues," to be held on October 25, 2017 at the New Jersey State Bar Association (NJSBA) 2017 Mid-Year Meeting at the Westin Palace Hotel in Madrid, Spain. Seminar attendees will learn about the latest court law, procedures and opinions from both sides of labor and employment law.

Along with serving as chair and panel moderator for the program, Mr. Frattarelli will provide attendees with an update on recent case law. Additional panel members will include other NJSBA Labor and Employment Section Executive Committee members and a local labor and employment attorney from Spain. This is the 4th year in which Mr. Frattarelli has been invited by the NJSBA to serve as a speaker at the Mid-Year Meeting.

Mr. Frattarelli is the Chair of Archer's Labor & Employment Department. Mr. Frattarelli regularly represents management and employers in labor and employment litigation and proceedings. He has extensive experience defending employers and individuals against harassment and discrimination lawsuits, as well as before state and federal administrative agencies. These include claims for race, gender, sex, disability, national origin and age discrimination. His management defense experience has been in a wide variety of contexts, ranging from unlawful discipline through wrongful termination. Mr. Frattarelli's litigation experience also includes an emphasis on defending against retaliation and "whistleblower" claims. He has handled numerous cases defending employers against claims of failure to accommodate the needs of disabled persons, including several cases that sought to extend the disability protection laws against employers and places of public accommodation.
