Real Estate Tax Appeals: Update 2017

Speaking Engagements & Seminars

02.11.2017

Location: New Brunswick

Archer's Alex Paul Genato will speak at the NJICLE program, "Real Estate Tax Appeals: Update 2017" on February 11, 2017.

Program Description

Despite the slowly increasing value of real estate in New Jersey during 2016, the number of real estate tax appeals filed is still high. What does 2017 bring?

With real estate values still rebounding and New Jersey property taxes under continued scrutiny, real estate tax appeals remain a highly fertile area in real estate and tax law.

The program will provide a review of some of the most important developments in this area of law over the past two years. Gain insight into what courts are doing in sufficient time to advise your clients and timely prepare your paperwork for the April 1, 2017 filing deadline in New Jersey.

Learn up-to-the-minute information about real estate tax appeals, including:

- Revaluation by municipalities to adjust to current real estate market - When and why a county conducts a revaluation
- Contract purchaser's standing to file a tax appeal
- Environmental contamination as a factor in deciding true market value of real estate property
- Recent tax decisions

- Tax appeal issues
- Senior Freeze Property - Tax Reimbursement - another vehicle for relief

...and more

The program will take place at the New Jersey Law Center in New Brunswick, NJ from 9:00 a.m. – 12:35 p.m.
