

Stephanie Zane to Serve as Treasurer of the Camden County Bar Foundation

Press Releases

05.09.2024

Archer is pleased to announce that partner Stephanie J. Zane, Chair of the firm's Matrimonial & Family Law Group, will be installed as Treasurer of the Camden County Bar Foundation on June 13 at the Association's Annual Installation of Officers Dinner. Stephanie will serve a one-year term. The Camden County Bar Foundation is the charitable arm of the Camden County Bar Association that works to strengthen the community through volunteer efforts in community service programs. Stephanie currently serves as the Co-Chair of the Camden County Bar Association Family Law Committee.

With over 20 years of experience in matrimonial law and family law matters, Stephanie focuses her practice on complex matrimonial litigation and represents clients in all aspects of divorce, custody, parenting time, child support, relocation, adoption, and domestic violence litigation. While Stephanie routinely handles complex litigation matters, she also is a trained mediator and mediation-friendly review attorney.

Active in the legal community, Stephanie is the President of the Thomas S. Forkin Family Law American Inn of Court, where she has been a Master member and an Executive Committee member for more than ten years. In addition to her role with the Thomas S. Forkin Family Law American Inn of Court, Stephanie continues to serve as a Trustee on the National Board of Trustees of the American Inns of Court, having previously served as National Treasurer and Chair of the Program Awards Committee. Stephanie is the first person from New Jersey to ever serve in these roles. Stephanie also holds memberships in the Gloucester County, Burlington County and New Jersey Bar Associations.

Stephanie has also served four 3-year terms as a member of the State of New Jersey Committee on Character, appointed by the Supreme Court of New Jersey. In addition to her practice and legal community-based appointments, Stephanie is involved in multiple community-based organizations. She has served as the Chairperson of the Cooper Hospital Patient and Family Advisory Committee, working to integrate the voices of patients and their families into healthcare operations.
