

Kelly Barry Installed as Secretary of the EFPCSNJ

Press Releases

06.19.2024

Archer is pleased to announce that Kelly M. Barry was installed as Secretary of the Estate and Financial Planning Council of Southern New Jersey (EFPCSNJ). She will serve a 1-year term. EFPCSNJ celebrated the installation of their 2024-2025 Board on June 19 at Saporì in Collingswood, NJ.

A member of Archer's Estates & Trusts Group, Kelly represents clients in all aspects of estate, trust, and related tax matters, including planning for both simple and complex estates, and probate litigation. She is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the nonprofit organization Interfaith Caregivers of Haddonfield, and Co-Director of Membership of the National Association of Women Business Owners-South Jersey Chapter.

The Estate and Financial Planning Council of Southern New Jersey is a professional association of estate and financial planning practitioners in the southern NJ region whose goal, among others, is to provide a better understanding of the services its members can render to the general public, and to promote the awareness and usage of financial planning through appropriate means, including education.
