

Esports Innovation Center Names David Weinstein Chair of Board of Directors

Press Releases

07.25.2024

At its annual meeting on July 15, the Esports Innovation Center (EIC) at Stockton University announced Archer partner, David A. Weinstein, will serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors.

The EIC is a nonprofit organization established through a partnership between the State of New Jersey and Stockton University. Its mission is to cultivate and expand the esports culture and industry within the Atlantic City area. The center is located on the Boardwalk in Atlantic City at Stockton's Kesselman Hall. David's experience in esports law and regulations will be a significant asset to the board, ensuring that the EIC remains at the forefront of legal and ethical standards in the rapidly evolving esports landscape.

David's practice is focused on complex business transactions. He represents public and privately-held businesses across diverse industries in a broad spectrum of transactional, regulatory and general business matters.

A significant portion of David's practice is dedicated to representing clients in the Esports industry. David provides counsel on a variety of issues, including the drafting, review and negotiation of contracts; business structure planning and modeling; and merger and acquisitions transactions, such as asset purchases, stock purchases, joint ventures and strategic alliances. David also serves as president of the Philadelphia Chapter of the Esports Trade Association (ESTA).
