Press Releases

07.26.2024

Archer partner, Anthony R. La Ratta, was reappointed to the New Jersey State Bar Association Equity Jurisprudence Committee. The Equity Jurisprudence Special Committee provides programs designed to improve the skills of Association members when practicing before the General Equity Courts of New Jersey, and facilitates interaction between the general equity judiciary and the Association.

Anthony concentrates his practice in the area of Trust & Estate Litigation, with an emphasis in litigation involving probate matters, estates, trusts, guardianships, and fiduciaries. He has represented institutions and individuals in a variety of contexts, including banks, corporate fiduciaries, executors, trustees, beneficiaries of estates and trusts, incapacitated persons, surviving spouses, and intestate heirs. He is admitted by the State of New Jersey to the roster of court-approved mediators for probate cases and has been appointed by the courts to assist in resolving such disputes through mediation.

Anthony is a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Council (ACTEC). Active in the legal community, he is a member of the Special Committee on Career and Wellness for the American Bar Association Section of Real Property, Trust and Estate Law, as well as a member of the New Jersey State Bar Association - Equity Jurisprudence Committee. In addition, he also serves as Co-Chair of the Camden County Bar Association Probate and Trust Committee.
