

Andrew Cevasco Named BCBA's 2024 Professional Lawyer of the Year

Press Releases

10.09.2024

Archer partner, Andrew J. Cevasco, has been selected by the Bergen County Bar Association ("BCBA") as a recipient of a 2024 Professional Lawyer of the Year Award. Professionalism Awards are presented in cooperation with the New Jersey State Bar Association, the New Jersey Commission on Professionalism in the Law, and the various county and affinity bar associations. The awards are presented annually to lawyers selected by bar associations across New Jersey who, by virtue of their exemplary conduct, competence, diligence and demeanor, set a positive example for others. The award will be presented to Andrew at the BCBA Professionalism Dinner on October 22 at Seasons in Washington Township, N.J.

Andrew served as President of the Bergen County Bar Association for the 2019-2020 term. He has been a member of the BCBA since 1981, and a Trustee and Officer of the Association from 2005-2022. He has also served as member and Co-Chair of its Probate and Estate Planning Committee and its Professionalism Committee. He is currently a co-chair of the Bergen County Judicial and Prosecutorial Appointments Committee, which reviews applicants for appointment and reappointment to the Superior Court in Bergen County. Serving as an advocate on behalf of the members of the BCBA, on September 24, 2024 Andrew appeared before the New Jersey Supreme Court, advocating for the reversal of Advisory Committee on Professional Ethics Opinion 735.

Throughout his career, Andrew has demonstrated dedication to public service, including his work for over a decade on the N.J. Supreme Court Committee on Character, which reviews applications for admission to the New Jersey Bar, and his service on the N.J. Supreme Court District IIB Ethics Committee.

Andrew has handled a broad array of legal matters in his over 40-year career. He regularly counsels clients in the planning and administration of estates and trusts and drafting of wills and trusts, and provides administration of estates and trusts. He is an experienced litigator representing clients in will contests, trust litigation and probate matters. He also represents clients with regard to guardianship and elder law issues. Andrew also counsels the firm's commercial clients on matters related to business planning, business formation and dissolution, employment and contract issues, and real estate. He has also appeared before the Disciplinary Review Board and the New Jersey Supreme Court to represent attorneys who have been charged with violations of the Rules of Professional Conduct.

Andrew is AV Rated by Martindale Hubbell. He is listed by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a mediator and mentor on its Roster of Mediators.

About Archer

For over 95 years, Archer & Greiner has been providing full-service litigation and transactional legal services to clients ranging from Fortune 100 corporations and small and middle-market companies, to closely-held and family-owned businesses. Our 175 attorneys span nine offices serving clients' interests across a wide range of industries. As a full-service firm, we draw on the strength of all our practices and multidisciplinary teams. This collaboration ensures that our clients receive complete, coordinated and comprehensive counsel in every area of the law that impacts their businesses.

Related People

Andrew J. Cevasco

Partner

✉ acevasco@archerlaw.com

☎ 201.498.8501

© 2024 Archer & Greiner, P.C. All rights reserved.

