

Coriell Institute for Medical Research to Honor Peter Driscoll

Press Releases

10.09.2024

Archer partner, Peter E. Driscoll, will be honored by Coriell Institute for Medical Research celebrating his 32 years serving on the Coriell Board of Trustees, including formerly serving as Chairman. Located in Camden, NJ, the Coriell Institute for Medical Research is an independent, non-profit biomedical research center dedicated to the study of the human genome. Peter will receive his honor on October 22 at an event being held at The Union League of Philadelphia.

Peter has more than 45 years of experience in estate planning, planning for closely-held and family businesses, estate administration, and estate, gift and transfer taxation. He is a former chair of Archer's estates and trusts practice.

Throughout his career, Peter has demonstrated dedication to public service. Cooper University Health System is among the many charitable, civic and professional organizations in which he was involved. Peter is Trustee Emeritus of the Cooper University Health System, having previously served as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Cooper University Hospital for thirteen years. He was a member of the Board of Consultors of the New Jersey Bar Association Real Property, Probate and Trust Law Section. He has also served as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Plastic Suppliers, Inc., a privately held manufacturer and distributor of plastic film and sheet, headquartered in Columbus, Ohio.

Peter received his L.L.B. from Harvard Law School and his B.A. from Williams College.
