

Steven Mignogna Appointed to ACTEC Leadership Roles

Press Releases

03.25.2025

Archer partner Steven K. Mignogna has been appointed to the National Membership Committee of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) and reappointed to the Board of Regents of ACTEC. The National Membership Committee is responsible for selecting ACTEC Fellows from nominations around the country. The Board of Regents is ACTEC's governing body.

Steven has held several leadership roles in ACTEC, including having just completed a 5-year term as ACTEC New Jersey State Chair. He recently served as Chair of the Fiduciary Litigation Committee and now serves as Co-Chair of the Damages Subcommittee. Steven is active in ACTEC in several other areas as well, including the Fiduciary Administration Committee, the Joint Task Force of ACTEC and the National College of Probate Judges, and the Advisory Committee to ACTEC's Mid-Atlantic Fellows Institute.

ACTEC is a prestigious association of highly-credentialed trust and estate lawyers. Its members are elected to the College by demonstrating the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors. All ACTEC members have made substantial contributions to the field of trusts and estates law through writing, teaching, and bar leadership activities.

Steven serves as the Chair of Archer's Estate and Trust Litigation Practice Group and focuses his practice on commercial litigation, with a concentration on probate matters, estates, fiduciaries, guardianships, and real estate. He is a national lecturer and author.
